

Synthetic practice submission

Alex Example

A fair rule should be applied consistently. If an exception is needed, the teacher should explain why it serves the purpose of the rule.

For example, an extension after illness preserves the chance to learn.

This is different from favoritism because the same exception is available to every student facing the same barrier.